

Minors

A minor is available only to a matriculated student currently pursuing a baccalaureate degree. While not required for graduation, a minor provides an option for the student who wants an academic focus in addition to a major. Completion of a minor requires that a student earn a C (2.0) grade or better in each of the required courses for that minor. The same course may be used to meet both major and minor course requirements unless specifically stated otherwise in a major or minor. A maximum of 3 credits toward the minor may be transfer credits of courses equivalent to University of Connecticut courses. Substitutions are not possible for required courses in a minor. A plan of study for the minor; signed by the department or program head, director, or faculty designee; must be submitted to the Degree Audit Office during the first four weeks of the semester in which the student expects to graduate. The minor is then recorded on the student's final transcript. The minor may be chosen from any of those listed below in alphabetical order by title.

African Studies

Students electing this minor must complete a minimum of 15 credits and meet a language requirement.

Course Requirements

Two courses are required from among the following courses in the Social Sciences:

ANTH 225, HIST 223, POLS 239, SOCI 226

One course is required from among the following courses in the Humanities:

Six more credits are required in courses on the lists of courses meeting the Social Sciences and Humanities requirements and/or the following courses:

ARE 255, ANTH 223, ANTH 264, ARTH 285, ECON 247, GEOG 258, HIST 222, POLS 244

Language Requirement

Intermediate proficiency in an approved language other than English is required for the degree. This will be either the official language of an African country, e.g. Arabic, French, Portuguese, Swahili, or a widely used African language. Requires completion of the fourth semester of a college-level language sequence or examination by a faculty instructor in the language.

The minor is administered under the auspices of the Center for Contemporary African Studies. Courses of study are supervised by committees of participating faculty. Students should contact the Director, Center for Contemporary African Studies, Office of International Affairs.

The minor is offered by the department of Agricultural and Resource Economics. For more information, contact Dr. Linda K. Lee at Linda.K.Lee@uconn.edu or 860-486-2836.

American Studies

This minor promotes an interdisciplinary understanding of the complex economic, political, and cultural structures at the root of the societies of the Western Hemisphere. Our studies range from the first immigrations across the land bridge from Siberia, to the colonization of the Americas by Europeans, to the present day. Students may also examine such issues as ethnicity, gender relations, and environmental awareness, and discuss how literary and visual artists have articulated contemporary cultural concerns. Students must complete fifteen credits, including any one of the following:

ENGL 270, ENGL 271, or ARTH 254
and either HIST 231 or HIST 232

They must then choose a track, a series of related, 200-level courses within a broad area of study. Students must complete three courses within this track in order to attain the minor. These courses may be used to fulfill a student's "related" course requirement; however, a student may not use American Studies courses to fulfill simultaneously the requirements of his or her major field and the requirements of the minor.

To insure focus, students must provide a brief rationale for their track and course choices.

The minor is offered by the American Studies Program. For more information, contact Robert Tilton, Director, 486-2058.

Anthropology

The requirements for this minor are at least 15 credits in Anthropology courses that include (1) two courses chosen from ANTH 214, 220, 233, and 244, and (2) three additional 200-level courses, with the exception that not more than three credits of 290 - 299 series courses may be counted toward the minor.
