Event Overview

Think of this as one big and exciting easter egg hunt, except the only thing you know about the eggs are their coordinates. Using our GPS receivers, find the hidden caches in the shortest time and you win the hunt. For a better chance at winning, some previous experience will be helpful, so we here at UConn Outdoors recommend that you sign up for our FREE Geocaching 101 clinic which will teach you everything you need to know in order to conquer your competition.
