Trip Overview

UConn Outdoors and New England Ski and Scuba are offering you a unique opportunity to receive an Open Water Diving Certification. Each class will be split into two halves. There is classroom session, which goes over the necessary skills you'll need to pass your certification and there is pool session where you don SCUBA equipment and practice those skills you just learned in the classroom. Earning this certification opens up whole new opportunities for you to see the world we live in from a completely different perspective...Literally!
